Firmer from Milford, Swindled Out of $20, Says They Are The Guilty.

GETS "RUSH ACT" AT DEPOT

ANCIENT BOGUS CHECK GAME IS WORKED ON VICTIM.

The "rush act" was worked on J. A. Herron of Milford, Utah, at the Rio Grande Western station yesterday afternoon by two "grafters." Last night Herron identified Thomas Brown and Fred Sanders at the police station as the men who relieved him of a $20 greenback. who relieved him of a $20 greenoads. Brown and Sanders were arrested last night by Detectives George Raleigh and R. L. Shannon in front of the Culien hotel. Brown attempted to make his escape through a saloon, but Detective Shannon gathered him in and landed him in the city jail.

Herron lost his money in the same way the graft has been worked from time immemorial. He is carrying around with him a bogus check for $750, but he would him a bogus check for $750 in coin of gladly exchange it for a $20 in coin of the realm. Herron and Sanders met yes-terday morning at the Rio Grande Western depot. They commenced a conversa tion and before half an hour had passed Herron believed he had met an old friend. Sanders said that he was a traveling man and had "made the town of Milford" for two or three years on his trip through southern Utah. Herron wanted to buy town to cash it," Sanders said, addressing Herron.

Herron dug down into his trouser pocket and pulled out a long buckskin purse. He dumped out a handful of silver and two greenbacks. He handed one which was a $20 bill to Sanders. The "porter" took it, thanked Mr. Sanders and left. The two men walked up town together, but Sanders are firend from Milford the silp and left him with the check on his hands. Herron attempted to cash it, but payment was refused and told that it was bad. At last he brought it to the police station and explained the affair to the officers. He gave a good description of the men and after Sanders and Brown were brought in identified them as the same

The same game was worked twice last week at the Rio Grande Western station and the officers believe they have the men who turned all three tricks. The men are not known here in police circles. They say they came from Denver. The charge of obtaining money under false pretenses be preferred against them. He stop over in Salt Lake for a nd assist the city in prosecuting th

CASHIER MISSING.

& Run Starts on Washington National Bank of Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 16.-As the result of the mysterious disappearance of S. C. Armstrong, cashier of the Wash ington National bank of Pittsburg, over three weeks ago, the depositors mostly foreigners, started a run on the bank last evening. The withdrawing of deposits was resumed today.

The bank's deposits aggregate over $1,000,000. The officials said to any that the cashier has been missing for more than three weeks, but stated emphatically that there was no discrepancy in Emery, multi-millionaire of this city his accounts. Every depositor making is dead in Egypt from pneumonia, the application for his money was paid and the bank officials say there is plenty of cable, funds to meet any demand which may be made. Mr. Armstrong has always borne a good reputation.

45 W. 2d South. 'Phones 464. Engineer Killed and Passenger Sustains Injury to Back. Vancouver, B. C., Jan. 16.-The Great Northern train from Seattle for Vanccuver was wrecked about 10 o'clock known sheepmen have volunteered to last night near Burnaby lake. The wreck was due to a fallen tree which lay across the rails. A sharp curve hid the obstacle from the view of the engine driver. The tree might have been cleared, but in its fall it caused the rails to spread. James W. Jones, of Seattle, the engineer, was killed. Charles Hoffercamp, of Blaine, a passenger, sustained injuries to his back, and Paul Thompson, a passenger agent of the Illinois Central railway, Seattle, had his ankle sprained and a flesh wound on his knee. There were four ladies, one boy and

Oakland, Cal., Jan. 16.-Last night in the course of his examination of the affairs of the postoffice, R. A. Madrief illness, aged 86 years. Captain dern, postal inspector of this division, discovered discrepancies in the accounts of Charles J. Harrington, clerk in charge of the money order division, indicating a shortage of several hundred dollars. Maddern immediately placed Harrington in custody and odged him in the county jail pending further investigation. The morning a representative of Harrington deposited with Postmaster Dargis a sum sufficient to cover all the the apparent discrepancies, which Harrington says are due to a multiplicity of errors which have been permitted to go uncorrect-He denies any intention at em-
